

Portage College is a ARDN member

The Alberta Rural Development Network \(ARDN\) is a partnership of 21 post-secondary institutions in Alberta, working together to support and enhance rural development. ARDN is committed to ensuring rural communities are a place to grow, a place to seek new opportunities, and a place to build futures.

View website <http://www.ardn.ca/>

Creating Rural Connections Conference May 11-13, 2010, Lethbridge

The Creating Rural Connections Conference, May 11-13 2010 at the University of Lethbridge, is an opportunity for learning, networking and exchange of research and information related to rural development. Organized by the Alberta Rural Development Network (ARDN), the conference features keynote and breakout sessions, interactive discussion and networking opportunities. Early bird registration to April 15.